

Study Group on Eighteenth-Century Russia

59th Meeting (2018)

High Leigh Conference Centre, Hoddesdon

Wednesday 3 January

- 15.30-16.30 Registration and Afternoon Tea
- 16.30-18.00 Ricarda Vulpius (Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität München), Russia as an Empire in the Eighteenth Century: Imperial and Colonial Concepts and Practices of the Russian Elite
- 18.30 Dinner
- 20.00 Business meeting (including an update on Strasbourg 2018)

Thursday 4 January

- 08.15-09.00 Breakfast
- 09.30-11.00 Rachel Koroloff (Georg-August-Universität Göttingen), Via the Volga: the gardens of Moscow and Astrakhan, 1706-50
- 11.00-11.30 Morning Coffee
- 11.30-13.00 Liudmila Sharipova (University of Nottingham), The Troubled Career of Sister Asklipiodata, a Convert Nun in Eighteenth-Century Kīev
- 13.00-14.00 Lunch
- 14.00-16.00 Excursion / Break
- 16.00-16.30 Afternoon Tea
- 16.30-18.00 Anthony Cross (University of Cambridge), Catherine the Great as portrayed during her Reign by British and British-based Artists
- 18.30 Dinner

Friday 5 January

- 08.15-09.00 Breakfast
- 09.30-11.00 Viktoria Ivleva (Durham University), Shaping the Body Politic: From Catherine II's Uniform Dresses to Regional Uniforms
- 11.00-11.30 Morning Coffee
- 11.30-13.00 Andrew Curtin (University of Essex), Transforming Tradition; the Eighteenth Century in the Early Work of Alexander Ivanov
- 13.00 Lunch and end of conference