

Study Group on Eighteenth-Century Russia

60th Meeting (2019)

High Leigh Conference Centre, Hoddesdon

Friday 4 January

- 15.30-16.30 Registration and Afternoon Tea
16.30-18.00 Nikolas Pissis (Freie Universität Berlin), *"Petrus Primus Russograecorum Monarcha":
On the multiple contexts of an Image*
18.30 Dinner
20.00 Business meeting

Saturday 5 January

- 08.15-09.00 Breakfast
09.30-11.00 Anastas'ia Lystsova (Ural Federal University, Ekaterinburg), The Russian Succession Crisis of 1740-41
11.00-11.30 Morning Coffee
11.30-12.30 Maria Petrova (Higher School of Economics, Moscow), The Investigative Process in Russia in the 1760s (according to the Materials of the Moscow Investigative Expedition)
12.30-13.30 Lunch
14.00-15.30 Break / Excursion
15.30-16.00 Afternoon Tea
16.00-17.00 Matthieu Clément (Université de Lausanne), *Shaping History for a Monarch:
Frédéric-César de La Harpe's lessons to the future Alexander I of Russia (1784-1794)*
17.00-18.00 Danièle Tosato-Rigo (Université de Lausanne), Enlightened Education at the Russian Court: La Harpe's Reports on Alexander and Constantine Pavlovitch's Learning (1784-1794)
18.30 Dinner

Sunday 6 January

- 08.15-09.00 Breakfast
09.30-11.00 Margarita Vaysman (University of St Andrews), "Hussars! Silence!!!": Gender Normativity and Queer Identity in Nadezhda Durova's 'Notes of the Cavalry Maiden'
11.00-11.30 Morning Coffee
11.30-13.00 Ulla Ijäs (University of Turku), *Shopping in Eighteenth-Century Northern Baltic
Towns*
13.00 Lunch and end of conference